

URGENT/TIME SENSITIVE INFORMATION/IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED

DEADLINE: Tuesday, February 7, 2017

Dear Argentine Bondholder:

You are receiving this email because you have recently contacted counsel for the classes of bondholders regarding the settlement of the class action with Argentina, captioned Seijas v. Republic of Argentina. To qualify as a member of the class you are required to have continuously held one or more of the following eight types of Argentine sovereign bonds since at least the Start Date shown in the following chart:

Description	ISIN Number	Start Date
Argentina 11% Notes due 10/9/06,	US040114AN02	January 16, 2004
Argentina 7% Notes due 12/19/08	US040114GF14	January 16, 2004
Argentina 9.75% Notes Due 9/19/27	US040114AV28	January 22, 2004
Argentina 11.75% Notes Due 6/15/15	US040114GA27	February 4, 2004
Argentina 11% Notes Due 12/5/05	US040114AZ32	February 4, 2004
Argentina 8.375% Notes Due 12/20/03	US040114AH34	February 10, 2004
Argentina 12.375% Notes Due 2/21/12	US040114GD65	March 17, 2004
Argentina Floating Rate L+0.8125 Notes Due 3/05	XS0043120582	March 17, 2004

There is a proposed settlement between this class and Argentina currently pending before the court. The settlement amount is 150% of the outstanding principal of the bonds, minus those attorneys' fees, costs and expenses that the court approves.

Bondholders that qualify as class members were required to submit a claim form by November 15, 2016. The forms can be found at www.argentinabondclasses.com. Proof, such as an account statement, that you or a family member has held the Bonds continuously from the applicable start date in 2004, as outlined in the chart above, was to be provided as well.

If you did not submit your claim forms and supporting documents by November 15, 2016, we can not assure you that the Court will accept your late claim. However, if you send us a complete claim form and supporting documents in time for us to have received such materials no later than February 7, 2017, we will submit your claim package to the Court.

Please, submit your completed claim form and the supporting documentation outlined above to both Marta Colomar and Kerry Aubin by email to:
